

SOCIETY EVENTS

Hendley-Earl Nuptials.

A wedding of elegance and beauty was solemnized at the Methodist Episcopal church on Wednesday evening. The bride, Miss Eldena Margaret Hendley, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hendley, is one of Pendleton's popular young ladies. The groom, Mr. John Wilfred Earl, is a very active young business man in the employ of the Peoples Warehouse. A large number of invitations were issued for the wedding and the church was filled with the many friends of the contracting parties. Promptly at 8 o'clock, when Miss Hazel Bickers, who presided at the organ, played the familiar notes of the bridal chorus, there was an air of expectancy among the friends of the couple. The ushers, who were Mr. Ben Burroughs and Mr. Harry Thompson, led the bridal procession down the west aisle of the church, followed by the maid of honor, Miss Blanch Horn, then came the bride on the arm of her father, who preceded her bridesmaid, Miss Emma Sawtelle. At the altar, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the groom and his best man, Mr. Mark Moorhouse, awaited the coming of the bride. The bridal chorus was hushed in by the soft tones of "O, Promise Me," which was played while Rev. Mr. Warner read the wedding service, the ring ceremony following. At the conclusion of the wedding service Mendelsohn's wedding march was played as the bridal party and the guests departed.

The bride's gown was beautiful in its simplicity of white silk mousseline en train, trimmed with medallions of lace. A tulle veil was arranged to fall over the back of the gown, not including the face of the bride. A cluster bouquet of bride roses was carried.

The maid of honor looked stunning in a gown of light green silk mull, with a large picture hat of black. She carried bride roses. The bridesmaid was becomingly attired in white mull over pink, also wearing a large black hat and carried pink roses.

The members of the bridal party and friends were tendered a reception after the wedding at the home of the bride's parents. The reception room and dining room were beautifully decorated in asparagus vines, sumac and autumn leaves, pink roses being interspersed as a color in the reception room, and the dining room was done in red. Mrs. Frank Clifton served punch and Mrs. S. B. Carnine served ices, assisted by Misses Nellie Cameron, Edna Thompson, Maud Sheridan and Flo Hallock.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl dispensed with a wedding trip and will be at home after November 1 at 1006 Alta street.

THE WOMEN'S CLUBS

The Woman's Club held its first meeting for the club year at the home of the secretary, Mrs. M. A. Dimosway, on Tuesday afternoon.

The next meeting will be held next Tuesday, October 18, probably at the Commercial Club rooms. There will be election of officers, reports of the delegates to the state federation meeting at Baker City, reports of special committee on plans for the coming year's work, and it is hoped that all of the members will make a special effort to attend this important meeting. Should the Commercial Club rooms not be available as a meeting place, notice will be given in Monday's paper.

Some of the delegates to the Baker City meeting of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs were present at the organization of the federation in 1899 and have attended every meeting of the federation since that time. These ladies are unanimous in saying that there has never been a better convention held. Nowhere has there ever been so great an attendance of others besides the delegates at the meetings. The federation meeting has, as always, enthused the hostess club with new zeal for state federation work. Your correspondent is not able at this time to send an extended report of the meeting, but the returning delegates will give full reports at the Woman's Club next Tuesday afternoon, and these reports will be full of interest to all club women.

Mr. and Mrs. Bamber then visited British Columbia for their wedding trip. Want Government Land.

George Hendee of Warsaw, Ind., is here and will put in a couple of weeks ascertaining as much as he can about the government land in this county before winter sets in. He represents two brothers and three brothers-in-law, residents of Warsaw, Goshen and Plymouth, Ind., besides several others of that vicinity who have decided to come west. All have some resources, and prefer to extend them improving government land than to pay fancy prices for improved properties.

Albert Laubaugh, a wagonmaker from LaSalle, Ill., arrived yesterday and will visit his brother-in-law, Jos. Quinn, in the Juniper country. Mr. Quinn is a recent comer and old friend in Champaign county, Ill., of the Bolzes and Johnsons, who are a few miles from Echo. Mr. Laubaugh is in frail health and will winter in the country, and unless his health is improved very much by spring, he will invest in a small farm in preference to following his trade.

Sutherland sued for $200 damages because of the shooting of his white bull dog. Kemler admitted killing the dog, but declared he did it by mistake, thinking at the time he was slaying a homeless canine that was bothering a neighbor's stock.

FOR PORTAGE ROAD

SPECIAL MEETING OF COMMERCIAL ASSOCIATION.

Leon Cohen Elected to Represent Umatilla County on the Open River Commission, in the Absence of T. G. Halley—Judge Lowell and J. L. Blalock Address the Meeting on the Matter of Securing Funds to Complete the Portage.

Umatilla county has been actively enlisted in the cause of the portage road, and within a few days solicitors will be at work securing this county's subscription toward the $40,000 needed to complete the project. Leon Cohen has been recommended to the open river association as the local representative and his commission will arrive shortly.

Mr. Cohen's duties will consist in the sending out of solicitors and in receiving all moneys collected in this county for the deficiency fund. In making an appropriation for the construction of the road the Oregon legislature gave only $165,000, and it has been found that at least $40,000 more is needed. The open river association which has taken up the task of raising this amount, is working in Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

J. L. Blalock of The Dalles, representing the open river association, came before the members of the Commercial Association yesterday afternoon and urged the body to assist in the raising of the necessary funds. "The surveys for the road," he said, "will be completed within two weeks, and the contractors are ready to begin work on the road just as soon as they are assured that the funds are available. The money should all be in before March 1, 1905."

Judge Stephen A. Lowell said the entire county should assist in raising the money. "Four or five thousand dollars will be all that is required from Umatilla county," he said. "I believe there are 100 men to be found in this county who are willing to give $50 each. I for one am willing to do so. If, as is promised, the portage road's completion causes a reduction of one-half in freight rates, the saving to wheat shippers in this county alone in one year would amount to more than the entire $40,000."

The selection of Mr. Cohen was due to the fact that T. G. Halley, local delegate to the open river association, is absent in the East, and will not return until about December 1.

For Better Train Service.

The matter of better train service was brought up at the meeting. It was decided to invite General Manager Joseph McCabe of the Washington & Columbia River railway to confer with the association relative to a more suitable passenger service between this city and Hunt's Junction. It was suggested that perhaps arrangements could be made for a special passenger train once or twice each week over the line to allow farmers and others to come to Pendleton to trade.

A communication was read from D. C. Brownell of Umatilla, urging the local association to work for irrigation development. Mr. Brownell suggested that an endeavor be made to secure free transportation for delegates to the irrigation convention to be held at El Paso, Texas, from November 15 to 18.

It was declared the sense of the association that prominent Pendleton men now at St. Louis be appointed delegates to the Trans-Mississippi Commercial congress which convenes there shortly.

T. C. Taylor made a motion that carried unanimously, placing the association on record as favoring an appropriation from the county to place an exhibit at the Lewis and Clark fair.

A letter was received asking that the Pendleton Commercial Association sanction the passage of the Quarles-Cooper bill which is to come up at the next session of the national congress. This bill is one giving the interstate commerce commission power to enforce its regulations. No action was taken further than to instruct the secretary to secure a copy of the bill.

Come to Invest.

W. L. Van Slyke of Milton, is in town to meet his parents, P. M. Van Slyke and wife of Kansas City, who arrived on No. 1. The former came to Umatilla county last spring from Kansas City, and is so well pleased that he induces his people to follow. It is probable that all will invest in fruit lands in the northern part of the county.

J. M. Church to Leave Oregon. It is reported that J. M. Church, the pioneer banker and well known politician of La Grande, will go to Southern California to reside permanently.

SCHOLARS WANT BOARD.

Several Deserving Students of High School Would Work Their Way Through School.

Prof. E. B. Conklin has assisted about 15 young men and women now attending the high school in finding places where they can work for their board, while attending school, and within the last few days several more young people have come in who desire places to stay where they may do chores and light work, for their board during the winter months.

They are among the very best students in the school and have exhibited a wonderful amount of pluck and energy in coming from the country districts to the city where they may have the advantage of the high school grades. Any one having need of a young man or woman for the winter, under these arrangements, can be supplied by applying at the high school.
